Kings Business Park

Tiger Court forms part of Kings Business Park, a well-established business location on the outskirts of Prescot, offering a professional environment with a diverse mix of office and commercial occupiers. Businesses on the wider park include professional services, recruitment, property, consultancy, healthcare and specialist commercial operators.

The park benefits from attractive landscaped surroundings and views towards the adjoining lake, providing a pleasant setting for staff and visitors. The wider area has also seen investment in amenities, with a growing range of convenient food, coffee and everyday services nearby, including Greggs, Starbucks and Subway, alongside other retail and leisure facilities.

With its established business community, accessible location and improving amenity provision, Kings Business Park provides an attractive base for occupiers seeking a well-connected and professional working environment.
